Have your say, time is running out

Posted on 4 November 2011

The MAP team would like to thank all those who have contributed to this national conversation on Australia's progress and told us what matters to them. There is still time for you to have your say and tell us what is important to you for Australia's progress. To read some of the contributions, click here

If you prefer to make a formal written submission please read our Public Submission Guidelines or you can send an email to measuringprogress@abs.gov.au
